JESSICA EVANS | ANASTASIA MAYE | AND MORE!

As we embark on another 365-day journey, RHK is truly grateful to share another year with our readers, fans, models, photographers, and everyone else who continues to support us.

2020 was filled with plenty of memories ... some good, some bad ... but memories nonetheless! The main takeaway from 2020, at least for me personally, was to count my blessings. Be grateful. Savor the moment. Breathe. Look for the positives in every situation. And hopefully I was able to convey that message to everyone I had an opportunity to work with. Even though we faced small obstacles and challenges, we had (and have) so much to be thankful for ... and a better day is always on the horizon!

With all of the challenges we faced in 2020, we were still able to continue our operations without interruption ... and had another great year! We released exclusive content every month, with over 25 all-new issues. We worked with new featured models, while some of our previously featured models returned with even hotter content!

All in all ... last year was a huge success!

In 2021, we hope to get back on our promo-tours, which give us the opportunity to meet and discover the world's hottest models. And, as always, our goal is to deliver the best magazines and products we possibly can ... our readers and fans deserve nothing but the best!

Weight: 9 stone

Legs: 20 inches

Hips: 30 inches

Waist: 24 inches

Arm: 10

How long have you been modeling?

I've been modelling around 6 months.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling?

I've had many photo shoots with different people, but Laura Skye helped pushed me that little bit further to do studio shoots rather than FaceTime shoots. I've never had the full confidence to do it any sooner, but as my confidence is building, my modeling is too.

How would you describe your modeling style?

I love the sophisticated style modeling but also creative, glamour ... less minimal clothing style.

What is your most memorable moment as a model?

My most memorable moment as a model would definitely have to be feeling absolutely amazing when having my hair and make-up done by Chantelle Smith ... and trying new ideas with Laura Skye, pushing me out of my comfort zone.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term?

I would absolutely love to grow in the modeling industry by my face being in a magazine or websites in either the fitness, glamour, or fashion industry and work with new and other people.

What is your sexiest feature?

My sexiest feature would either have to be my eyes or my bum.

How long have you been modeling? For about a year.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling? My family used to joke that I had the legs for it. I love how you can be anyone you want when you model. The very best version of yourself. I was always told to go after everything I wanted and to put my mind to it and I'd get it. This has always been a dream.

How would you describe your modeling style?

Like to keep it fun, classy, and alluring.

What is your most memorable moment as a model?

My first photo shoot ever. Made me come out of my shell and feel confident.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term?

To get over being my worst critic. I've come a long way and I need to be proud.

What is your sexiest feature?

My eyes.

How to Take a Stress-Free Holiday Road Trip

Holiday travel can be stressful, but it should be fun, too. Advance planning and proper car care can take much of the stress out of a holiday road trip and leaving you free to enjoy the ride.

Checklists for each aspect of the trip will help ensure that nothing important is left behind, and that you are safe and prepared in case of an emergency. When it's time for a holiday road trip, keep these tips in mind for smooth travels:

Check your ride: A complete car check before a road trip should include making sure the fluid levels are sufficient. Make sure wiper blades and the wiper mechanism itself is working properly. Check your lights, including brights, to be sure they are functional. And, last but not least, don't forget your tires. Tires are the connection between your car and the road, so be sure to examine the tread for signs of excess wear.

"Traction and tread are inextricably linked. The grooves in your tires are critical in helping to channel water away to allow the tire to grip the road," says Sarah Robinson, Michelin safety expert. "Making sure you're driving on tires with proper tread can be the difference between avoiding an accident and becoming part of it."

Be prepared: Equip your car with an emergency kit, including water, flashlight, blanket, jumper cables, extra windshield wiper fluid, cell phone charger, and emergency phone numbers for roadside assistance, as well as a contact person at your destination.

Map your route: Check your route in advance and, if possible, plan your trip for times with less traffic. If you are planning to use a map feature on your phone, use the voice component; if you don't have that, consult a paper map and get a sense of the route before you get behind the wheel.

Safety first: That means the driver focuses on driving. If you are the driver and need to check your phone, send a message, have a snack, or tend to a child or pet in the back seat, wait for a rest stop, or if necessary, pull over to the side of the road.

Watch the weather: Especially during winter holidays, knowing the weather in advance can help you plan to avoid a storm. If conditions are truly dangerous, the smart move is to postpone your trip until the weather improves.

Q&A

"My breasts and butt are my sexiest features."

ANASTASIA MAYE, FEATURED MODEL

How long have you been modeling?

Over 3 years.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling?

I had a friend who did some modeling and I got in touch with her photographer. It felt very empowering and boosted my confidence, so I knew I wanted to continue doing it.

How would you describe your modeling style?

I primarily do sexy, yet classy, boudoir and art nudes ... but I dabble in other styles including fashion, cosplay, and body paint.

What is your most memorable moment as a model?

I had a chance to do an upscale fashion shoot with wolves. That was definitely a memorable experience and one of my favorite shoots!

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term?

My short-term goal is to make beautiful art that I'm proud of and to make a living off modeling gigs. Long-term goal is to be published in more widely known magazines and be a well-known model within the model/photographer community.
